

Brad Homman is County Administrator for Dickinson County, having held this position since 2006. Prior to that time Brad served 20 years in law enforcement with the Dickinson County Sheriff's Department holding various positions to include Patrol Deputy, Criminal Investigator, Director of Emergency Communications, and Undersheriff. The majority of his career was spent investigating narcotics related crimes as Captain of the regional drug enforcement task force.

In his position as County Administrator Brad oversees the daily operations of Dickinson County to include supervision of all twelve non-elected departments. He is responsible for the annual county budget, EMS & Health Services, human resources, and road and bridge personnel just to name a few.

In 2011 Brad was elected to the Board of Education of Solomon USD #393, where he still serves as a board member, having served as Board President the past several years and currently serves as Vice-President.

Brad is a graduate of Cloud County Community College and Salina Technical College. He also completed the Kansas Law Enforcement training academy and is a Graduate of the University of Kansas Certified Public Management Course.

Brad is married to his wife Michelle of 30 years, with three children, all of which are currently attending colleges in Kansas.