THE CENTER FOR REGIONAL STUDIES

The Center for Regional Studies was established by the Board of Regents of The University of Kansas in 1965 for the general purpose of contributing toward a better understanding of the process of regional growth and development. While primary attention is to be focused on the State of Kansas, the aim is to provide information which is beneficial to other regions as well.

Through the Center's research efforts, useful information will be made available to interested persons involved in agriculture, business, education, government, and labor in order that they might have a more factual basis upon which to make planning decisions.

FOREWORD

This is the second year that the Kansas Statistical Abstract has been compiled and distributed by the Center for Regional Studies. The demand for the first volume was very encouraging. Requests, predominantly from Kansas, were received from governmental agencies, schools, libraries, business firms, trade associations, newspapers, and private individuals. In addition, requests were received from many other parts of the United States and several foreign countries.

The demand for the Abstract strengthens our conviction that a need exists for a concise and convenient reference volume of important social and economic data pertaining to the state of Kansas. As regional economic and social statistics become more numerous so do the sources disseminating such information. Obviously, the utility of these statistics largely depends on an awareness of the various sources containing them, and their accessibility. Often, even under the best of conditions, it is difficult to know if and where particular regional statistics exist. Therefore, data have been obtained and compiled from a number of different sources. It was felt that their potential usefulness would be increased as a result of consolidating them into one volume.

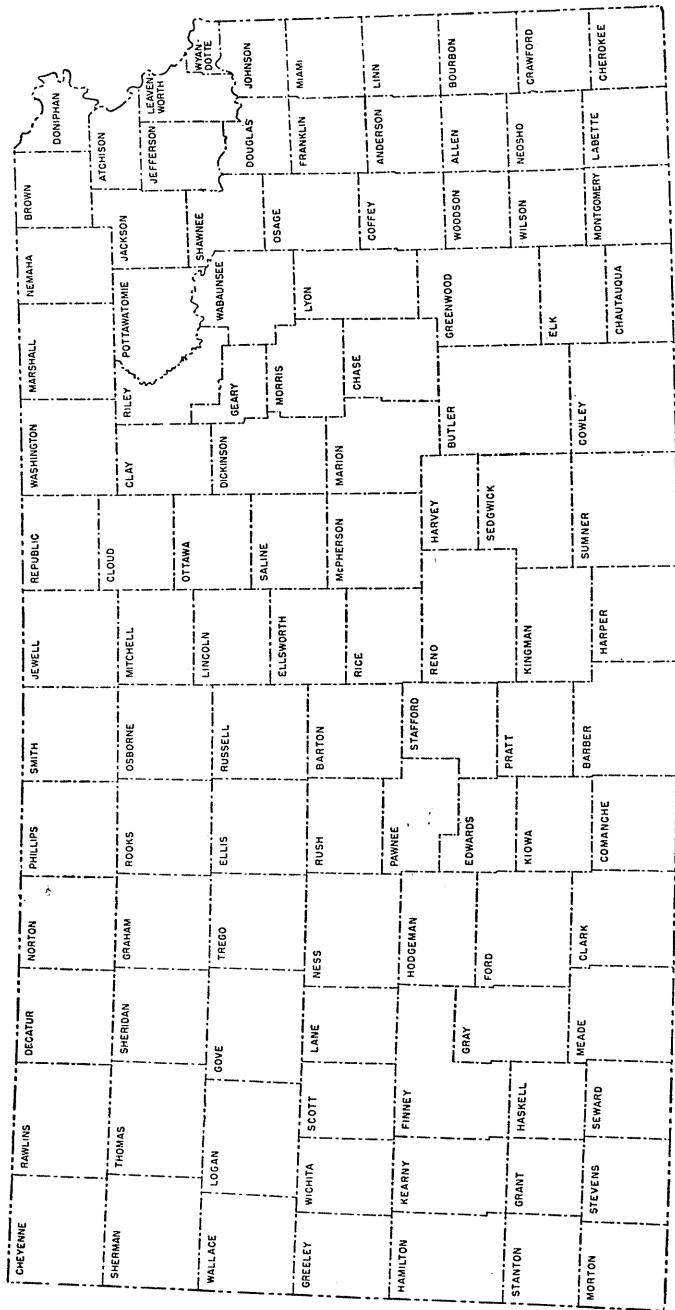

A great deal of credit should be given to Mr. Alan Timblich for his efforts in gathering and compiling the current data presented in this volume. In addition, Mrs. Geraldine Johnson and Mrs. Barbara Woody are to be commended for their efforts in typing and editing the tables.

Bank debits are "..... debits to deposit accounts except interbank accounts. More specifically they include debits at reporting commercial banks, member and nonmember, to deposit accounts of individuals, partnerships, corporations, the United States Government, and State and local governments. The figures include debits to time and saving accounts, payments from trust funds on deposit in the banking department, and the payment of certificates of deposit. The figures exclude payments of certified and officers' checks, payments in settlement of clearing-house balances, charges to expense and miscellaneous accounts, corrections and similar charges, and debits to the accounts of other banks, that is, to 'interbank deposits.'"

* The excess of farm acreage over approximate land area is due to the fact that the entire acreage of a farm is tabulated as in the county in which the headquarters are located, even though a part of the farm may be situated in an adjoining county.
